HAYWOOD TRIAL IS APPROACHING THE END

State and Defense May Be Able to Finish Testimony Today.

Boise, Idaho, July 17.—Rebuttal evidence in the Haywood trial will be concluded this afternoon, and as the case now stands it is likely that the defense will also close its case.

O. N. Sackett, one of the officials of the Smuggler union mine at Telluride, Col., was one witness under examination this morning.

He gave an interesting account of the conditions xisting in Telluride from 1901 to 1904, and leading up to the declaration of martial law.

An interesting piece of documentary evidence introduced by the state was a written agreement entered into in 1902 between Edward Collins, manager of the Smuggler union mine, and Vincent St. John, president of the local union of the Western Federation of Miners. Under this agreement St. John agreed to stop attacks on the Smuggler union mine as agreed between himself and Mr. Collins. Under cross-examination Sackett was unshaken.

He joined in the action of the citizens in taking the law into their own hands prior to arrival of the militia, and described the conditions as contrary to the well-being of peace-loving citizens.

Will Work Lawyers Overtime.

On opening of court today Attorney Richardson notified the state that the defense desired three of the state's witnesses to remain in town.

Judge Wood announced that prior to opening of argument he would notify counsel as to the main points in the evidence upon which he would instruct the jury. Clarence Darrow announced that the surrebuttal for the defense would be short.

Judge Wood said that while he would not limit the attorneys in their arguments, he probably would increase the court hours so as to get through as quickly as possible.

Lawyers were inclined to protest against this. Mr. Hawley, for the state, announcing that he had been anything but well during the past few days. He said he might have to temporarily abandon the examination of witnesses if he felt no better.

O. M. Sackett, of Telluride, Col., an employe of the Smuggler Union mine, was the first witness. He told his personal experiences in the riot at the Smuggler Union mine in 1901, when he said that he and several other employes of the mine were compelled to run a perfect hail of bullets in order to get to the mine.

PEACE IS NEAR IN TELEGRAPHERS' STRIKE

Basis for Agreement Has Been Found at San Francisco.

San Francisco, July 17.—As a result of a conference between Labor Commissioner Neill and President J. Small, of the Commercial Telegraphers' union, an end of the telegraphers' strike has, it is believed, been brought into sight.

It was hinted about telegraphers' headquarters in Oakland that some friction had developed between President Small and members of the executive committee of the National Union who came west with Commissioner Neill and one of them is said to have strongly intimated that there would be no extension of the strike to other cities, whatever might be the outcome here. It is believed that strong influences will be brought to persuade the operators to accept the terms offered by the companies. Whatever terms covering wages and hours are agreed upon in settling the strike, unionists declare they will insist upon reinstatement of all members now out.

President Small says he will probably make public today the result of his conferences with Commissioner Neill. He will not yet announce whether a general strike will be ordered in event of failure of Neill to bring the strikers and companies together.

IT SOARED SKYWARD.

Temperature Touched 88 Degrees at 2 O'clock Today.

The maximum temperature recorded at the office of the Fort Wayne Gas company today was 88 degrees, which was the showing at 2 o'clock this afternoon. This is four degrees higher than the maximum yesterday, reached at 4 o'clock p. m.

From 74 degrees at 6 o'clock this morning the temperature rose to 77 degrees at 9 o'clock, 85 degrees at noon and 86 degrees at 1 o'clock.

SHOW PUBLIC SPIRIT AND FAITH IN FORT WAYNE

Subscribers to New Hotel Project Comprise a Roll of Honor.

The Sentinel is permitted to give publication today for the first time to the list of subscribers to the stock in the new hotel company, and the names of the public-spirited citizens with faith in Fort Wayne constitute a roll of honor. The papers have been signed with E. C. Rurode, and the new hotel company is now in possession of the site chosen at West Berry and Harrison streets.

The new hotel is a "go," thanks to a few men who organized the movement and to many public-spirited citizens of Fort Wayne who rallied to their support. The campaign has been short, sharp and decisive, and the readiness with which the people of the city have subscribed the capital stock reflects new glory upon our citizenship.

Bonds to the amount of $200,000 will be sold, and, including the value of the grounds, the new enterprise will cost somewhere in the neighborhood of $400,000. It will not be second to anything in the state. Already offers are made for a twenty-year lease at a figure sufficient to pay all fixed charges and leave enough to pay from 6 to 9 per cent upon the capital stock.

A Public Enterprise.

This enterprise is emphatically a public one. The company is made up entirely of our home people, for even Col. J. Levering Jones, of Philadelphia, the only outsider, announced when here that he also claimed to be a citizen of Fort Wayne. With the exception of E. C. Rurode, who started the subscription to the capital stock

EIGHT DEAD TAKEN FROM RUINS OF BUILDING

Old Structure Falls Upon a Crowded Store at London, Can.

London, Ontario, July 17.—Search of the debris of Crystal Hall, which collapsed yesterday afternoon, was completed today.

The dead numbered eight, as follows:

W. T. Hamilton.
Frank Smith.
Clara Mullins.
William Tamblin.
Mr. and Mrs. Edward Howell.
Jos. Long.
Unidentified man.

Crystal Hall was a three story brick structure on Dundas street, and one of the landmarks of the town. It crashed down on a one-story 5 and 10-cent store adjoining, at 5 o'clock yesterday evening, burying about 100 shoppers and working girls in the debris.

The small store, which is known as Brewster's, is one of the most popular in the city. A special sale had been advertised for the afternoon and the place was crowded to the doors when the tragedy occurred. Without a moment's warning the girders of the old structure gave way and the top stories lunged downward, crashing through the top of the store, completely crumbling it into a mass of debris.

The building was being remodeled. A number of old supports had been taken out and iron girders had been placed. It seemed that the front wall of the building fell out into the street. An instant later the east wall gave way and crashed down on the Brewster store. As the front wall fell a woman, walking on the sidewalk, was swallowed up in the wreckage.

Rescuers Begin Work.

The noise attracted a few men to the scene and the general alarm was spread. From every corner of the city came willing helpers. They attacked the impregnable mass of wreckage, and spurred on by the heartrending cries of the imprisoned women, worked with a vengenance. The work of rescue is progressing slowly and it is feared that the death list will reach fifteen men, women and children.

The first effort to reach the mass of prisoners resulted in the dragging of three girls from the ruins. These victims had been carried down with the brick and mortar and hurled into an adjoining cellar. Miraculously they escaped death and serious injury. Others maimed and bleeding, were able to drag themselves from the ruins without the aid of the rescuers.

WILL EXHUME BODY TO DETERMINE FOUL PLAY

Illinois Attorney General Advises Move in McGill Case.

Springfield, Ill., July 17.—Attorney General Stead has advised State's Attorney Arthur Miller, of DeWitt county, that if any new facts have come to the notice of the state attorney's or coroner's office in regard to the supposed murder of Mrs. Pet Magill, at Clinton, by her husband, Fred Magill, who is under arrest in Los Angeles, Cal., on the charge of murdering his first wife, or if the coroner has reasonable grounds to believe from the representations of responsible parties that there has been foul play in the death of Mrs. Magill or that he had been imposed upon at the first inquest, he not only has the power to hold another inquest, but that it is his duty to do so, and that to that end he may exhume the body and hold a post-mortem examination.

SOLDIERS OFF TO CAMP BY THE TROLLEY ROUTE

Aboard special cars on the Fort Wayne and Wabash Valley Interurban lines, more than two hundred members of the Indiana National Guard left Fort Wayne today for the annual ten-days' camp of instruction near Indianapolis.

The Fort Wayne boys were first to get away at 7 o'clock this morning, with two special cars and a freight car for the battery equipment.

Company K with the Second Regiment band, reached the city from Auburn over the Toledo and Chicago interurban line at 7:30 o'clock and transferred to Wabash Valley cars here. There was provided a freight car for the horses of Major Kuhlman and his staff.

The Columbia City company also arrived shortly after 7 o'clock and got away on the electric cars but little behind the Auburn contingent. Company A, Albion, in spick and span new uniforms, reached the city this afternoon and without loss of time got under way for Indianapolis.

KISSED WIFE, THEN HE CUT WOMAN'S THROAT

Arkansas Educator in Fit of Jealousy Slays His Helpmeet.

Fort Smith, Ark., July 17.—A. O. Gholston, a well-known educator today killed his wife in a most shocking manner.

Taking his wife in a close embrace he kissed her fondly and then while the woman was helpless in his arms he drew a razor across her throat almost severing her head and killing her instantly.

Gholston was insanely jealous of his wife and while in such a fit he committed the murder. The couple was well known and the murder has caused a sensation.

BOARD ADDS LITTLE TO TAX VALUATIONS IN THE COUNTRY

Time Was Devoted to Equalization of Land and Lot Values.

Members of the county board of equalization finished their work today and Auditor George W. Lindemuth stated that including the bank assessments, which are fixed by the board, about two million had been added to the tax duplicates. This means that practically nothing has been added, as the bank will cover the amount.

The members have worked faithfully for the forty-five days specified for the completion of their duties and have faced a proposition that precluded much work outside of the office. This is the year for fixing land and lot valuations and task of equalizing assessments all over the county is a big one and it has been difficult to accomplish this alone. The members are satisfied that the work will prove satisfactory.

There have been, of course, a few additions and reductions on corporation property, but Mr. Lindemuth stated today that they had given good valuation when the assessments were made and that few changes were deemed necessary. There were hundreds of complaints that improvements had been over-valued and a great deal of the time of the board was consumed in hearing complaints along these lines. The members of the board consist of County Auditor G. W. Lindemuth, County Treasurer Jacob Funk, County Assessor William Eggemann, D. L. Harding and William Schroeder. The county commissioners allowed each member of the board $135 for services except Mr. Eggemann, whose duties as assessor include the time he sits with the board.

BOY DROWNED WHILE SWIMMING IN A CREEK

John Hay, Aged 11, Goes Down to Death at Monroeville.

While swimming with several companions of about his own age, John Hay, aged 11, was drowned in Flat Rock creek at Monroeville shortly before noon today. The unfortunate lad was a son of Adam Hay, residing one mile north of Monroeville, and up to 3 o'clock this afternoon the body had not been recovered.

Flat Rock creek, running along the eastern edge of Monroeville, is ordinarily little more than a large ditch, but recent rains have swelled the stream until the water is now about eight feet in depth. The Hay lad, with Clyde Taylor and several other playmates, went swimming in the creek about 11 o'clock.

They had been in the water about forty-five minutes when the Hay boy got far beyond his depth in midstream, and his companions were too young to offer any assistance. After madly struggling for some time the child sank to his death. Thoroughly frightened, his playmates summoned assistance and a large proportion of the town's population joined in the search for the remains.

STATE AND FEDERAL COURTS ARE IN CONFLICT

North Carolina's Railway Fare Law Precipitates Some Trouble.

Raleigh, N. C., July 17.—By a sudden change in the tactics of counsel for T. E. Greene, Southern Railway ticket agent, who spent last night in jail rather than give bond for his appearance on a charge of selling railroad tickets at a rate above two and a quarter cents a mile, federal and state courts are expected to be brought into direct conflict.

Judge B. F. Long, of the superior court, today issued an order to the sheriff, taking Greene out of his custody and into the custody of the court. Greene is commanded to be present at the bar of the court in all its sittings. This order was issued in anticipation of a writ of habeas corpus from some federal judge compelling the sheriff to produce Greene.

Nine Pedestrians Killed and 34 Hurt in Month in Massachusetts.

Boston, July 17.—Nine pedestrians have lost their lives and thirty-four have been injured as a result of automobile accidents in Massachusetts within the past twenty-six days, according to statistics compiled and made public today. During the twenty-six days there have been ninety-two collisions in which automobiles have figured.

FOUR HURT IN SMASH-UP.

Lexington, Ky., July 17.—Ray McCarthy, was probably fatally injured, Miss Lena Wilburn, seriously, and two others were slightly hurt in an automobile accident today. When two miles out of the city the automobile ran into a stone wall, threw the occupants out and was wrecked.

RECOUNT LAW WILL GO TO HIGHEST COURT

Decision Adverse to Mr. Hearst Given by the Supreme Court.

New York, July 17.—Justice Ingraham in the appellate division of the supreme court, today announced that the court had unanimously decided that the recent law, which provides for the recount of ballots cast in the last mayorally election in New York city, is unconstitutional.

In view of the action yesterday of the appellate division in Brooklyn, in deciding that William R. Hearst is entitled to a recount under this law Justice Ingraham stated that it had been decided to let the case go to the court of appeals for final decision. In the meantime, Justice Ingraham said the court would issue an order for the stay of proceedings under the law until the court of appeals had time to render a decision.

Clarence J. Sheran, counsel for Hearst, raised the point that the court had no authority to issue an order for stay of operation of a law passed by the legislature. After argument the court reserved a decision.

BURGLARS ENTER STORE AND STEAL GOODS AND MONEY

Indiana Bicycle and Supply Company is Robbed.

Burglars broke a pane of glass from a rear window of the store of the Indiana Bicycle and Supply company on the Washington boulevard side of the Lau block last night and stole a lot of goods and 25 cents in pennies.

A coaster brake worth $5, a couple of carbon lamps, several pairs of tires, eight or ten knives and several ammeters for testing batteries were taken and the aggregate value is placed at $25 or $30.

An attempt was made to loosen the putty around the pane of glass but before this was accomplished the glass broke and afforded easy access to the room. Local talent, probably boys, is suspected of the job. The police are investigating.

Marcus Connett and Col. G. W. Stiles are among the later eligibles suggested for the place. The compensation is wholly dependent upon fees, and the job is not a remunerative one.

MASSED BANDS GIVE THE ELKS A FEAST OF BLARE.

The fifty reviewing stands along the two-mile route were crowded with people and the streets were jammed with a sweltering throng.

The drill contest in which many visiting lodges will participate will be held tonight.

When the grand lodge reassembled this afternoon it was announced that Edward Leach, of New York, had defeated John W. Wagner, of Kansas City, for grand treasurer.

Thomas E. McNulty, of Baltimore; Charles E. Schmidt, mayor of Wheeling, W. Va., and Thomas H. Mills, of Superior, Wis., were elected grand trustees.

To Meet in Dallas.

The Elks last night selected Dallas, Texas, as the next convention city and elected John K. Tener, of Charleroi Pa., grand exalted ruler of the order. John W. Wagner, of Kansas City, Mo., was made grand secretary. It was said that probably none of the candidates received the majority of all votes cast.

As soon as the business session ended the city was given over to the crowds of Elks, which were too great for the sidewalks, and filled the streets from curb to curb. The police were powerless to keep traffic clear; cars could not run, and hacks and hansoms with excited drivers and passengers, formed islands in the living flood.

Down at the two ferries to Atlantic City thousands fought to get into Philadelphia. The heat all day was intense. The weather fugitives formed a mass which extended for three blocks from the Delaware river, and there for hours men, women and children fought and strove to reach the stations. Clothes were torn from women, men's hats were smashed and their coats ripped, and the children fear crazed, cried in terror.

Relief Comes at Last.

At last, at 9 o'clock, squads of reserves were rushed down Market and Chestnut streets, and after a hard struggle gave some semblance of order to the mass and drew the fainting women and children to places of safety.

Up in the great court of honor on Broad street, the three massive pillars swayed and cracked as the crowd of thousands massed itself and swept around the city hall. At 10 o'clock the multitudes were completely beyond the control of the police and swept along as they pleased. Every kind of noise from brass bands to bells and pistols were there.

All night the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals was hunting for the El Paso delegation, which brought up three live badgers and a bull dog among other things. In a secret place last night they pitted the bull dog against a great white badger with 500 cheering Elks about. The bull dog was nearly killed, but vanquished the badger, which died just as the scouts of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals found the place.

Vicious Elk Chews Enemy's Ear.

The Colorado delegation had trouble on its hands. One of its members went out to Woodside park last night and proceeded to ride indefinitely on the switch back on a pass. The switch back man protested, and the Elk chewed his ear almost off. As the penalty for this offense in Pennsylvania is twenty years in the penitentiary the result of the ride may be disastrous.

SEATS FALL AND MANY ARE INJURED AT EVANSVILLE

Accident During Program at Chautauqua Disables Large Number.

Evansville, Ind., July 17.—Eight were badly injured and 100 others suffered severe bruises last night at 8 o'clock when a section of seats in the Chautauqua auditorium collapsed. The most of the injured are women and girls. Two were taken to hospitals and although they are frightfully hurt, it is believed they will not die. Between 400 and 500 were thrown to earth.

The Injured.

Mrs. S. Biedermann, internal injuries; taken to hospital.

Albert Cooley, aged 13, right side injured.

George Worthington, postal clerk; leg broken and other injuries.

Fred Hostetter, lawyer and Chautauqua director; head cut by timbers.

Gertrude Schlaffer, 12, body trampled, two ribs fractured and internally injured by falling timbers; taken to Gilbert's hospital.

Mrs. Charles Eves, ankle broken.

Mary Ulsomer, 18, left leg injured and foot mashed.

Bertha Grant, 12, hands and body injured.

Nola McCuthean, aged 8 years, trampled upon, ribs broken and internally injured.

The performance had hardly begun when the music of the band was drowned out with a tremendous crash and the shouts of terror from thousands of throats. A second more and the screams of the injured arose above the tangled mass of wreckage and the struggling men, women and children were trying to free themselves from the debris.

Rescuers at Work.

As quick as the less injured cleared off the wreckage, those who were too badly injured to move themselves were dug out from underneath the timbers. Two of the women were unconscious and a dozen more, who proved later not to be seriously hurt, were momentarily dazed so they could not move.

Fortunately Drs. Warner and Rietz were in the audience and were seated on the ground floor, which did not give away. The physicians had their cases with them and immediately set about caring for the wounded. The injured women and girls were carried into other tents along the main way and there attended by the doctors.

The seats which gave away were to the right of the entrance and were the last ones filled by the big crowd which swarmed out to enjoy a half holiday given by all business houses in honor of Evansville day at the assembly. The seats, built up to a height of fifteen feet, were made of heavy timbers and were supposed to be securely braced.

That no one was killed outright is remarkable.

AGED MAN AT HOSPITAL.

Henry Lehman, 76 years old, who fell down a flight of stairs at his home at 439 Suttenfield street, last week, was taken to St. Joseph's hospital in a serious condition, last night.

WANT EMPEROR TO ABDICATE.

Seoul, Korea, July 17.—The Korean premier has asked the emperor to abdicate because of his action in sending a deputation to The Hague.

THOMAS SAFFEN IS IMPROVING.

Physicians Thinks Wounds Were Inflicted by a Blow on Head.

The condition of Thomas Saffen, of Harmer and Jefferson street, who was operated upon by Dr. A. H. Macbeth at St. Joseph's hospital last night to relieve a pressure upon the brain caused by a fractured skull, is satisfactory today.

Several nights ago he was found unconscious upon the sidewalk on East Lewis street and it was thought he had fallen. Dr. Macbeth is of the opinion that he received a blow that caused the headfracture as it is upon the top of the head and could not, he thinks, have been caused by a fall unless it was from the top of a building. The police have had a report of the matter.

The Fort Wayne Shields will play at North Manchester on next Sunday.

MARRIED CHILDREN GET INTO COURT WITH TROUBLES

Magnified Family Jars Make a Divorce Suit—The Court News.

Arlis Guy Kniss and Della Kniss, just out of their teens although they were married two years ago, came in from Eel River township to relate a lot of childish troubles that have been magnified by themselves and discussed by members of their families until they developed into a suit for divorce filed by the husband and resisted by the wife through the medium of a cross complaint.

He said his wife was turbulent and always looking for trouble and trying to pick a quarrel. Unpleasantness developed, he said, two weeks after their marriage, but the worst accusation he could bring against her was that she left home during corn-husking time and made his mother do all the work. Another offense is that when he went against her wishes to work extra in a barber shop in Huntertown she threatened to dress in fantastic garb and go to the shop and sit around and talk a little Billingsgate. She didn't do it, however.

She charges that he threatened to kill her, kicked over the furniture, broke the dishes and would not speak to her for long periods. Her mother-in-law took a hand in the affray and was one of the chief witnesses. The trial was on all day.

Gilbert Takes a Change.

When the case against Harry N. Gilbert was called in the court of Justice Hanthorn this afternoon he filed an affidavit asking for a change of venue and if he gives a bond of $50 it will be granted and Justice Ketcham, at Huntertown, will try the case next Monday. The effort to give the witnesses all the trouble possible and to hamper the prosecutor as much as the law will allow is apparent in this as well as the other cases.

Demands Big Alimony.

Along with a divorce from Benjamin McAtee his wife, Mary E. McAtee, wants $5,000 alimony and she secured a restraining order to keep him from disposing of his property here and at Farmersburg, Ind. They were married April 2, 1906, separated last Sunday and have a baby six months old.

She charges failure to provide, says he called her bad names and was guilty of an infraction of his marriage vows.

She fixes the value of his property at $12,000 and says he owes her $1,000 which she loaned him at various times. Colerick & Ninde filed the action.

Seven Express Cases.

Seven suits were filed in the superior court today against the National Express company demanding the $5,000 penalty for failure to deliver packages outside the free delivery limits. These will be followed by others as rapidly as the complaints can be filed.

Court Notes.

George D. Hiser, former keeper of the road house on the Goshen road, has sued Nina and Harry Alderman, the present proprietors, to foreclose a mortgage for $4,000. Failure to meet matured payments is the cause. Heaton & Yaple brought the suit.

Edna Lewis was granted a divorce from George W. Lewis in the superior court.

William Repp has sued the Lima and Toledo Traction company for $250 to cover a scared horse, damaged buggy, spoiled suit of clothes and a ruined set of harness alleged to have been sustained May 23 on Maumee avenue.

The will of Mary L. Crimmans has been probated and after the payment of $100 to Mary L. Crimmans, an adopted daughter, and a like amount to St. Patrick's church the remainder of the estate is devised to the husband, Dennie J. Crimmans.

POISONED BY IVY.

Miss Iva Parrant, of 1629 East Creighton avenue, who in company with a number of young ladies spent Saturday with Miss Cleo Langstaff, north of the city, was badly poisoned by ivy. Miss Parrant's eyes are affected and she will be confined to the house for several days.

LINDEMUTH IS SELECTED.

Will Appear Before the State Tax Commission of County.

The board of county commissioners today selected County Auditor George W. Lindemuth to appear before the state tax commission at Indianapolis on July 23 as the representative of Allen county. Mr. Lindemuth's intimate knowledge of values in the county fits him for the task and the selection is looked upon as a wise one.

He has just completed in connection with the county equalization board a canvass of all the realty in the county and will resist any effort on the part of the state body to increase taxes.

PIONEER WOMAN PASSES AWAY AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Mrs. Harriet O. Underhill Dies at Age of 77—Other Deaths.

Mrs. Harriet Olivia Underhill, for more than fifty years a resident of Fort Wayne, died at 4:30 o'clock this morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ira P. Evans, 343 Washington boulevard west, at the age of 77 years. Death was due to paralysis and attendant complications following an extended illness. Mrs. Underhill was stricken in September last, and during the greater part of the time until February of this year was confined to her bed. A week ago the aged woman sustained the second attack of paralysis, and from that time her decline was rapid.

Mrs. Underhill was the widow of P. S. Underhill, a pioneer Fort Wayne marble dealer whose death occurred thirty years ago. She was born at Augusta, Maine, was married to Mr. Underhill in Ohio, and they came to Fort Wayne half a century ago. Four children survive. They are Edwin A. Underhill and Mrs. John W. Stophlet, of Toledo; Elliott F. Underhill, of Frankfort, Ind., and Mrs. Ira P. Evans, of this city. Mrs. Underhill was a most estimable woman with many friends, and had been a devoted member of Wayne Street Methodist Episcopal church since coming to Fort Wayne fifty years ago.

Funeral services from the residence Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

SCHELE.

John H. Schele, a well known retired business man who had been a resident of Fort Wayne since childhood, died very suddenly Tuesday night at his home, 818 East Wayne street. Mr. Schele had been in impaired health for some months, but his death at this time was wholly unexpected. His condition took a marked turn for the worse Tuesday night at 10 o'clock, and death intervened within a few minutes after physicians reached his bedside.

Mr. Schele was born in Germany, April 16, 1842, and came to America with his parents when but an infant, making the last stage of the trip from Cincinnati to Fort Wayne in a wagon. He is survived by the widow, to whom he was married in 1887, and six children—Clement, George, Mrs. E. A. Vogeding, and the Misses Elizabeth, Josephine and Mamie Schele. There are also nine grandchildren and two brothers, August and Henry Schele. The deceased was a member of the School society of St. Mary's Catholic church.

KARL HAU ON TRIAL IN GERMANY FOR MURDER

Washington Professor in Court for Killing His Mother-in-Law.

Karlsruhe, Germany, July 17.—The trial of Prof. Karl Hau, of Washington, D. C., for the murder of his mother-in-law, Frau Molitor, in Baden-Baden, began today.

A few weeks ago, following the suicide of his wife in Switzerland, Hau made a confession of his crime.

Hau admitted today that while returning from Turkey he stopped in Vienna and collected $7,000 on letter of credit and that he had subsequently written from Frankfort-On-The-Main to his London bankers saying this letter of credit had been lost. He said that he had tried to get renewal of this letter of credit.

Afterwards he visited his mother-in-law in Baden for a week and then went to Paris accompanied by his wife and his sister-in-law, Olga Molitor.

The judge here showed the prisoner a telegram sent from Paris signed "Olga," asking her mother to come to Paris immediately and which was not sent by Olga. Hau refused to say whether he had written this telegram.

The judge called Hau's attention that on his arrival in London on his way to the United States he had received a telegram recalling him to the continent and selecting Berlin as the meeting place with an unidentified person. Hau had shown this telegram to his wife to justify his trip, and he admitted having sent the message himself.

A letter from Mrs. Hau to her mother was then read, showing that Hau had imposed on her the necessity of absolute silence regarding his trip back to the continent. Hau then admitted to having had a wig and false beard. He admitted going to Karlsruhe the day of the murder wearing a false beard. He said he left his two valises in the baggage room there. Asked why he did not take his baggage to Baden-Baden Hau made an ambiguous answer about catching the right train for London and on repeated inquiry he said he had no definite plan in doing this. The judge reminded Hau that many persons at Karlsruhe station had noticed that he wore a false beard and that he evidently was seeking to evade observation.

HE IS A DESERT GUIDE; MAY BE A FIERCE BEDUOIN

Anyway, He Has Come Over Here to Make American Heiress Bride.

New York, July 17.—From Said Kalil Haeck, a few weeks ago a traveler's guide in Syrice, now here planning to become an American alien, came the statement yesterday that on Wednesday of next week he will marry Miss Elsie Ellwood, daughter of W. L. Ellwood and granddaughter of Isaac L. Ellwood, of DeKalb, Ill., steel wire millionaire and business associate of John W. Gates.

Said Kalil is alone in his assurance that the wedding will take place. The grandfather of the girl, Isaac Ellwood, who is at the Waldorf-Astoria, was the only one of the girl's relatives who would discuss the subject at all last night. Miss Ellwood is at her home in DeKalb and from there it is reported that she laughed at the story that her relatives there unanimously put Sail Kilil in the Ananias club.

W. L. Ellwood is on his way to New York to perpetrate the Syrian quarters and get an explanation from the former guide.

Syrian Sure About Engagement.

Despite the fact that he seems to stand all alone in the matter, Said Kalil was positive last night that the marriage would take place in DeKalb next Wednesday. The Syrian said he met Miss Ellwood when in the capacity of dragoman he was looking after the tents and donkeys of the party with which she traveled through Syria recently. He came over to New York with some of the party, including Miss Ellwood, last week and at once set about the task of becoming a citizen.

Just at present he is living in the Syrian quarters, which is far removed from Fifth avenue, and there to a reporter who discovered him he had no hesitancy in relating his desert romance.

"I met Miss Ellwood and her party in Egypt first," said the Syrian. "She was about to go up the Nile. I maintain a contracting business which furnishes tourists with tents, supplies, donkeys, boats, or anything else they need when touring in the near east. We spent three months up the Nile and went as far as Wady Halfa.

Pledged Troth in Desert.

"But it was in the desert I really came to known Miss Ellwood. We traveled hither and thither for seventy-five days. Miss Elsie, who is 21, with dark eyes, like mine, and dark hair, and I became engaged. I think she like the life.

"I determined to become an American citizen. So I came on here. I will stay in New York while Miss Elsie goes west, because I want to take out my first papers. I go west next Monday and we get married on Wednesday, July 24."

"I don't know that they will get married," said Isaac Ellwood, the grandfather, when he was asked about it last night. "I saw my granddaughter last Saturday for about ten minutes just before she left for the west with her mother, father and sister. She was feeling sad. I suppose by the fact that her father was surprised and upset by the story she told him about having become engaged to this young Syrian. I don't know anything about the young man except he does not claim to be a prince or to have any title whatever.

"He hasn't any capital, either, I am told," continued Mr. Ellwood. "I'm going to have a talk with a young man who traveled in Syria with Said Kalil, and I will telegraph for my son to come on here at once and hear what is said about the Syrian."

Man Who Knows Doesn't Like Syrian

The young man who had traveled in Syria that Mr. Ellwood referred to is Arthur Moore of the firm of Maxwell, Manning & Moore, Liberty street dealers in machinery. Moore broke out into a violent perspiration when he learned of Said Kalil's alleged matrimonial prospects.

"What! That dragoman, and he wasn't even a good dragoman, either, to marry a nice American girl! Not if I can prevent it. I've had dealings with Haick before. I'm going to tell the Ellwoods all I know about this fellow; then if they permit him to marry into their family, it won't be because they are ignorant of what he is."

Said Kalil, it is stated, has acted as agent for Homer Davenport in buying Arabian horses and now owns a half interest in several stallions at Davenport's place.

HELD FOR CHOKING A GIRL.

Bluffton Young Man Arrested for Attempting Criminal Assault.

Bluffton, Ind., July 17.—Public feeling was aroused to a high pitch here last evening when it became known that Carl Le May, aged 28 years, had been arrested, charged with attempted criminal assault upon Mabel Metts, 20 years old, a daughter of Jesse Metts, a laborer of this city. The alleged attempt is said to have been made a week ago near the home of Miss Metts, but Le May made his escape at the time and the fact was kept a secret by the police. Yesterday afternoon Le May returned to the city and was arrested by Marshal Carlisle five minutes after he had left an interurban car. He was placed under bond in the sum of $500 and was given his preliminary trial today.

According to the story of Miss Metts, Le May had tried to force his attentions upon her on previous occasions, and when he met her on the night in question less than half a block from her home, at the extreme edge of the city, he forced her to accompany him, under the threat that if she cried out he would kill her. She said that when she tried to escape he grabbed her by the throat and choked her. A physician who was called found that the girl had been choked until the small blood vessels of her eye had burst. One of her eyes had been blackened and her throat showed plainly the finger marks. The girl was a nervous wreck. Le May declares that he is innocent of the charge, but when he was arrested yesterday afternoon he at first tried to deny his identity.

RIVAL TO HAVE HUSBAND FOR THE SAKE OF CHILDREN

Woman Asks Divorce That a Child May Be Legitimatized.

New York, July 17.—Torn by two strong emotions—hatred for the woman who won her husband from her and love for one of that woman's two nameless children—Mrs. Isabella Cunningham, of Brooklyn, has asked for divorce from her husband, John T. Cunningham, in order that he may marry the other woman and give the child a name.

In talking of her suit Mrs. Cunningham said: "It is perhaps unfortunate that I love little Dorothy under such circumstances, but she has such a place in my affections I am determined to see her face the world unhandicapped, even at the cost of all that has been dear to me.

"I have come to regard it as my duty to release Mr. Cunningham and leave him free to marry this woman, who, of course, I cannot help hating. But it is all for the best. I have offered to make Dorothy, their elder daughter, my heir if she is taught to love me.

"I have exacted from Mr. Cunningham a promise that he would marry the woman, Lizzie Dempsey, for the children's sake, as I have learned to love the elder girl, who is sweet and pretty, and comes to stop with me for weeks at a time."

Knew of Husband's Conduct for Years.

Justice Scudder, in the supreme court, Brooklyn, will say in a few days if this curious application for a divorce is to be granted.

For years Mrs. Cunningham, the wife of an engineer for a Broadway concern, who lives in Brooklyn, has endured the agony of knowing her husband was leading a double life and that she had only a small part of his affection. Once she horsewhipped the other woman when she found her with her husband. Her husband lost his position on account of it, but did not repent. Then Mrs. Cunningham sued her husband for non-support, but dropped the case.

A few years ago Mrs. Cunningham brought suit against Elizabeth Dempsey for alienation of her husband's affections. She asked an injunction to restrain her from meeting Cunningham. The marital troubles of the couple by this time had gained considerable notoriety, and Mrs. Cunningham's "injunction scheme for erring husbands" caused some comment. The process was unsatisfactory.

About this time little Dorothy came into Mrs. Cunningham's life. Then a transformation took place. Instead of the hatred which the wronged wife harbored for her rival, a spirit of toleration appeared. She grew to love her rival's child and forced the husband to acknowledge the child as his.

Sacrifices Man for Child's Sake.

She invited the child to her home in Clifton place and is having her taught to play the piano. The child returned the affection and the child's mother does not discourage the visits.

The younger sister of Dorothy, Katherine, found no place in the heart of "Aunt Belle," as little Dorothy calls her father's wife. As Mrs. Cunningham saw Dorothy grow she became thoughtful. In a few years, she argued, the girl would associate with other children and would suffer by the aspersions cast on her birth. Mrs. Cunningham saw a lawyer then and told him her story and the divorce suit was arranged.

Mrs. Cunningham herself says her sacrifice of her husband was determined on without any thought of her own remarriage, but admits that as soon as she is free she may marry Boynton Vanderveer, son of the confederate general, Ferdinand Vanderveer, who was supreme court judge in Ohio. Mr. Vanderveer is living in New York.

ELLIOTT IS SECRETARY.

At a meeting of the members of the police force last night Patrolman Ben Elliott was elected secretary to take the place of James Richardson, who recently resigned from the force. A vote of thanks was tendered to Mr. Richardson.

Ben Hawk and daughter, Mrs. Fannie McIvaine, and her daughter, Jesse arrived in the city today after a trip in the east.

FACT OF BUTTER TRUST IS DISCLOSED IN COURT

Charge Made That $19,000,000 Combine Controls the Product.

Detroit, July 17.—That there is a full-fledged butter trust capitalized at $19,000,000 and keeping the price of butter up to about 30 cents a pound was charged in the United States circuit court yesterday when Judge Swan denied the petition of the American Farm Products company for a permanent injunction restraining Eben F. Dudley, of Saginaw, from engaging in the butter and creamery business in his home city.

Story of Big Deal.

Evidence showed that the $19,000,000 concern some time ago bought out Dudley with the understanding that he was to keep out of the business, paid him $375,000 and agreed to give him a salary of $12,000 a year. Dudley claimed that the salary no longer is forthcoming. Attorneys from Chicago and New York represented the combine.

Dudley through his attorneys, Lyon & Moinet, of St. Johns, straightway made the claim that the company is a trust and the story of a deal was unfolded.

Needs It for His Family.

A feature of the declaration by Dudley was that he had re-engaged in business at Saginaw because he wanted to make a little money, so that his wife and children could be provided for and that he knew no other business except the butter business. This seemed like a plaintive plea for help for a starving family, until a reporter inquired how much Mr. Dudley had received for his butter and creamery plants at Owosso and Saginaw when he sold them about a year ago.

"All he got was about $375,000," said one of the attorneys.

Dudley will have a chance to make a little money to keep his family from want.

Paris Paper Makes a Few Remarks About United States.

Paris, July 17.—The Libre Parole pays its respects to the distinguished head of the American government in an article considering the prospects of a war between the United States and Japan. Incidentally it gives one the foreign view of American prowess.

The Japanese, it says, still are living in the enthusiasm of their victory over the Russians. They are in admirable war training, vibrating with patriotism and warlike ardor.

On the other hand, the Americans, who have been softened by long years of peace, coupled with unexampled prosperity, now appear to be stripped of that intensity and energy exhibited by President Roosevelt.

The president, himself, it says, has lost some of his prestige because he has talked too much, meddled in too many matters and intervened in too many negotiations which did not concern him. He has caused his portrait to be printed too often in the illustrated papers, while the Japanese have, for their part, the prestige of their force enveloped in mystery.

The Libre Parole's article found its excuse and inspiration in a letter addressed to the editor by Sochi Shimpan, a Japanese newspaper, asking his opinion about Japan, a country which the editor of the French paper frankly says he never visited.

Quartermaster Carroll and the seven applicants who were waiting to be examined for enlistment in the U. S. Navy were greatly disappointed when a telegram was received this morning from Lieut. Steele, stating that no doctor had as yet taken the place of Dr. Lumsden, who was transferred from this district. The telegram further stated that he would be here on Friday with a doctor to examine the men.

STONE ROAD PETITION IS FOUND TO BE ILLEGAL

Proceedings to Establish Joint Highway Are Dismissed

Proceedings filed in Wells county some time ago looking toward the establishment of a joint stone road thirteen miles in length along the Allen county line were dismissed yesterday at a joint session of the Allen and Wells county commissioners held at Bluffton. One of the principal causes for the defeat was the proof offered by Judge John H. Aiken and Homer C. Underwood when they presented a plea in abatement on behalf of Oliver P. Weaver, of this county, and showed that two of the necessary ten petitioners are not residents of any of the townships that would have been assessed.

John W. Stine, of Bluffton, represented 100 petitioners who were in attendance and he was met by Aiken & Underwood with a remonstrance signed by 370 land owners in Marion, Jefferson and Pleasant townships in Allen county and Union and Jefferson in Wells. Upon objection George W. Lechner, of the Wells county board, was not permitted to sit, as he and his son are interested land owners. Objection was also made to John Wyss, of Allen, but it was not sustained and the proceedings were held before five commissioners.

The improvement, it was estimated, would have cost about $50,000 and had it been favorably passed upon it would have established a road not much frequented and that leads neither to Fort Wayne, Bluffton or any other market point. The Allen county board has been opposed to it from the start. Members Tonkel, Wyss and Hockemeyer were present, with County Attorney Hoffman and Deputy Auditor Cal Brown.

MISS CASTLE ENDS LIFE BY INHALING GAS IN WASHINGTON

Former Fort Wayne Girl is Found Dead in Her Room Tuesday.

Newspaper dispatches from Washington, D. C., last evening stated that Miss Nellie Castle, formerly of Fort Wayne, had been found dead in her room. She lay fully dressed upon her bed, and gas was streaming from an open jet directly above her head. Both windows of the room had been closed and the door locked. Lying upon her dresser was a small testament opened at Corinthians I, and on a table was a stamped envelope addressed to Earl Rice, Adamstown, Md., a young man whom Miss Castle met last summer. Friends are unable to assign any reason why Miss Castle should take her life.

The young woman was a daughter of Calvin Castle, of Walton avenue, and was 22 years of age. She went to Washington about five years ago to live with her aunt, Mrs. Fannie Fulmer, and had been employed in department stores in Washington. Dispatches to friends in this city merely announced her death, making no reference to circumstances surrounding it.

It is announced that the remains will be brought to Fort Wayne for interment.

THE TERRE HAUTE FRAUDS.

A more flagrant, audacious attempt to make a raid on the public school funds of the state than that just uncovered in Terre Haute has never been made in Indiana. Acting upon the formal protest filed by Superintendent J. N. Study, of the Fort Wayne schools, State Superintendent Fassatt A. Cotton began an investigation of the recent school enumeration in Terre Haute, the returns from which as filed with the state superintendent showed a gain of 3,900 over the enumeration of 1906.

Superintendent Cotton's investigation shows frauds of the most glaring kind. Children who have no existence were enumerated in many cases and in other cases children were counted twice and even three times in the returns. In one instance the returns from one book containing near eight hundred names were placed verbatim in the total. Adults, infants of two and three years of age, state normal students and others having no right to enumeration were counted to make up a showing that should give Terre Haute representation on the state board of education and enable that city to rape the school fund of thousands of dollars to which she legally had no title.

Superintendent Cotton has ordered an entire new enumeration of the city and the work is under supervision of one of his deputies. With light on the methods pursued early in the spring when the first 1907 enumeration was taken it is safe to say that the re-enumeration will show something like a fair count of the noses of Terre Haute's population that is of legal school age.

At Terre Haute the excuse is made that the fraudulent padding of the school census is merely due to mistakes. Such a claim is absurd. The frauds are too glaring, the means employed too various, the total of known fraudulent enumerations too large to admit the mere question of error as an extenuating circumstance. The false census was deliberately, designedly and fraudulently conceived and perpetrated. A crime has been committed and several thousand times multiplied to gain a place on the state board of education and make possible a raid on the school funds of Indiana. Those guilty of the felony should not be permitted to escape the just penalty of their crimes, and Superintendent Cotton will be remiss in his duty to the people of Indiana if he shall fail to bring the guilty ones to book in a court to answer a criminal prosecution.

One of the most prominent, familiar and interesting figures in Northern Indiana is removed by death in the person of Colonel Isiah B. McDonald, of Columbia City. A pioneer citizen of Whitley county, Colonel McDonald had achieved public distinctions before the outbreak of the civil war. When the great conflict came on he gave up a public office to enlist in the union army and to his country he gave high and valorous service. Since the war he had become one of the best known of surviving veterans. Few were the gatherings of his old comrades in arms from which his stalwart figure was absent. His interest in all that concerned the ex-soldiers was whole-hearted and aggressive. He was a democrat of the old school and gave of his time and means for his party. He was a ready and vigorous speaker and there is scarcely a community in Northeastern Indiana where his voice had not been heard on the party stump. Personally Colonel McDonald was a most kindly, genial man, of warm impulses and ready sympathy. He had figured much in the journalism of this part of the state, at different times being interested in newspapers in his home City, in Fort Wayne and in Huntington. The visit of death to him was deferred until he was crowned with ripe age, but he will be greatly missed and widely mourned.

The Cortelyou presidential boom starts off with the handicap of being nursed mainly by New York politicians who are using the secretary of the treasury to ward off danger of a Hughes boom. Hughes is the kind of man who is nobody's man. The engineers of the political machine, the representatives of "interests" and the element whose pathway in politics always is devious cannot handle Governor Hughes. That fact and the other fact that he is a reformer who believes in reform at once divided him from his party in the legislature last winter.

As one-third owner of Atlanta's best hotel containing the finest bar in the whole south, Governor Hoke Smith will stand to sacrifice about $60,000 when he signs the new prohibition law, as he affirms he will. Quite a sacrifice, to be sure, but in a cause so good that Governor Smith probable is not in anywise harassed with doubts or regrets.

That Terre Haute woman who, at the age of thirty-one years, is shown by the recent school enumeration to be the mother of forty children of school age, is in line for honorable comment from the distinguished head of the anti-race suicide propaganda.

Probably a diligent search would disclose more than two "blind tiger resorts in Fort Wayne.

RECLUSE FOR EIGHTY YEARS.

Early Disappointment Spoils Life of Woman Just Dead, Aged 95.

Lawrenceburg, Ind., July 17.—Miss Sarah Ann Daniel, 95 years of age, died yesterday at her home two miles north of this city. She is believed to have been the oldest unmarried woman in Indiana, and for nearly eighty years she had lived the life of a recluse.

Tradition has it that when she was 16 years of age she became engaged to a young man who was teaching school in a distant part of the county, but at the close of the school term he left without a word of explanation, and Miss Daniel never heard from him again. Suffering from shame and humiliation, she refused to associate with the young people of the neighborhood, and when her father died, and later her mother, she was so heavily veiled at the funeral that her face could not be seen.

She continued to occupy the old homestead, but all business in connection with the farm was transacted through neighbors of her own sex, and it is said that she never spoke to a man, save her father, after her lover proved false.

GIRLS HURL BEER INTO RIVER.

Teachers and Coeds Break 2,200 Bottles of Seized Liquor in Iowa.

Des Moines, Ia., July 17.—Seizing 2,200 bottles of beer that Sheriff George Ross of Dallas county, had confiscated July 4, seven coeds and school teachers attending a summer school at Adel, took the stuff to the Raccoon river and smashed the entire number to bits on piers in the river. Miss Ethel Kent and Miss Ella Fagen, graduates of the Cedar Falls normal school, were visiting Miss Ruth Ross, daughter of the sheriff. Hearing of the seizure, they invaded a justice court where the liquor was stored, and loaded it on wagons. They enlisted in the cause Misses Myrtle Egan, Estell Meadows, Crystal Fowler and Muriel Beam. With Mayor Rea Thornton as master of ceremonies they proceeded to the river shore

SAY CASE OF BLACKMAIL IS BEHIND AN ARREST

Postoffice Inspector Burr Turns Trick at Michigan City.

Michigan City, Ind., July 17.—Charged with having sent obscene and lascivious matter through the mails, Beauregard Switzer, of Michigan City, has been arrested and placed under $500 bonds for his appearance in the federal court. The arrest is the result of investigations by Postoffice Inspector A. R. Burr, of Fort Wayne, and it is understood that Switzer will later be charged with attempting to blackmail J. E. Beyer, of Rochester, out of $20,000.

The postal authorities have been on the trail of Switzer for some time past and a delegation of officers were in Michigan City Monday to arrest him. The defendant was taken before United States Commissioner J. H. Orr, where he was given a preliminary hearing on the charge of mailing obscene matter. The evidence produced was sufficient for the holding of the defendant and he was placed under $500 bond and was placed in the custody of the United States marshal, being unable to furnish the bond. The letter produced in evidence was one of the most vulgar, blasphemous, obscene and lascivious that has ever gone through the mails. It is claimed that the letter was mailed by Switzer at Michigan City, and Switzer does not deny mailing it, but claims that it was only a copy of a letter written by someone else. The letter was addressed to J. E. Beyer, of Rochester, a brother of J. F. Beyer, of Warsaw.

Charges are made by persons conversant with the case that an attempt had been made to blackmail Mr. Beyer out of $20,000 and that other Michigan City, Laporte and Rochester people will be likely to figure in the affair before it is closed.

CHOICE OF HOME IS HUSBAND'S.

Judge Rules That Wife Must Follow Him Wherever He Goes.

Detroit, July 17.—"The wife may not choose where the family is to live, but must follow her husband, provided he treats her kindly," the supreme court said in a decision yesterday. The court set aside a decree of divorce recently granted by the lower court to Mrs. Anna Wisner, who applied for separation because her husband went to Mexico. She would not accompany him and he refused to support her in Detroit. She obtained a divorce on the grounds of non-support. Wisner appealed.

WHOOPING COUGH PARTY IS LATEST THING IN PITTSBURG

Children With Malayd and Mothers, Too, Attend a Novel Function.

Pittsburg, Pa., July 17.—"Mrs. W. H. Parker, of Grand View avenue, Duquesne Heights, tendered a whooping cough lawn fete last evening at her home in honor of her son, Georgie, who is suffering from the disease. Over a score of his little friends attended, all of them similarly afflicted."

This bona fide society note was sent to the newspapers here yesterday for publication.

Prizes for the Loudest Whoopers.

Pittsburg is suffering from an epidemic of whooping cough, and every child on Duquesne Heights has the disease and many of the papas and mammas of the children have it, too. The youngsters get tired remaining in the house, and as physicians declare that outdoor exercise is the best thing in the world for whooping cough, Mrs. Parker decided on the lawn fete.

The party was a whooping success. Every one present whooped, some of them until they were red in the face. To add zest to the affair, Mrs. Parker offered prizes to the boy or girl who whooped the longest and loudest and a booby prize for the one who only wheezed.

There were many complaints when the prizes were awarded and some of the unsuccessful ones claimed that the winners had an advantage over them, as they had had the disease longer.

Medicine a Feature of Lunch.

Lunch was served to the music of barking. With the lunch Mrs. Parker served a mild mixture of the medicine which every kid on Duquesne Heights has to take about every five minutes to keep from whooping his head off. It was only by the liberal use of the mixture that some of the youngsters could eat at all.

Many of the little ones were accompanied by their mammas, who have contracted whooping cough from them, and the affair was such a big success that several of the mothers who attended are arranging to give return entertainments.

At the tobacco exhibition in London some women made cigarettes at the rate of 120 in thirty minutes.

Saturday, July 20, will be the last day to pay Water Rent. Office open evenings.

JESSE WAPPES INJURED.

His Horse Took Fright at Interurban Car at Huntertown.

Jesse Wappes, a farmer residing in Eel River township, west of Huntertown, was struck by a Toledo and Chicago interurban car at Huntertown, Monday, shortly after noon. He drove to Huntertown in the morning and went to Fort Wayne on early T. & C. car. He returned just before noon and got his horse and buggy to go home just as the car, due here at 12:30, came along. He was driving south and when within a few feet of the car his horse jumped in front of the car. He was badly hurt. His horse was cut and his buggy almost wrecked. He was given medical attention and then taken home. For a time after arriving home he was delirious. He says his horse never frightened at the cars before. Motorman Price stopped his car in about thirty-five feet. Conductor Sheep was in charge of the car.

TRUST COMPANIES FACE OUSTER.

Toledo Prosecutor Plans Action if the Court Sentence Is Fought.

Toledo, Ohio, July 17.—Prosecutor Wachenheimer has discovered a new method of handling trust law violators who attempt to make a travesty out of the court's sentence. Under the Valentin law a firm found guilty of being in a trust can be ousted on the evidence that has convicted it of being in a trust. Wachenheimer has not had any inclination to use this section, but if matters do not go along differently ouster suits will undoubtedly be started against all the indicated companies. It is likely that the motions to arrest sentence will be overruled today by Judge Morris and taken to the circuit court. Intimation has been made that Wachenheimer is already investigating other illegal combinations.

MAID SUES DEPEW'S RELATIVE.

Alleges Sister-in-Law of Senator Owes Her Back Wages.

Muskegon, Mich., July 17.—Jennie Webb, a maid recently discharged by Mrs. Frances Depew, of Detroit, a sister-in-law of Senator Chauncey M. Depew, has sued her former employer for wages alleged to be due her. In police court yesterday Mrs. Depew, in answer to the suit, gives as reasons for discharging the girl that the latter called the butter "rotten" and the milk and cream "horrid." Mrs. Depew also alleges the girl refused to wash, feed the chickens and keep warm bread out of the draft. She also declares she gave the servant an extra week's wages when she let her go.

ASKS MILLIONS OF PRESIDENT.

Woman Tries to Present Claim for $11,000,000, but Is Thwarted.

Oyster Bay, L. I., July 17.—The usual summer visitation of cranks to Oyster Bay began yesterday with the advent of a woman of 70 years who wanted to go to Sagamore Hill to present to the president a claim for $11,000,000. The secret service guards intercepted her and placed her on board an outgoing train. They were unable to discover on what she based her claim.

Just as she was leaving town an old man appeared at the village postoffice and announced in a loud voice:

"I am the devil and am going to see President Roosevelt." He has not yet beeen apprehended by the president's guards.

UNCONSCIOUS AT THROTTLE.

Heat Overcomes Engineer as Passenger Train Whirls Along.

Cleveland, July 17.—Hundreds of lives were imperiled yesterday when Floyd E. Webber, engineer of a fast westbound Lake Shore passenger train was stricken unconscious at his throttle and the train sped almost into Cleveland without a guiding hand. The engineer was overcome by the intense heat.

As the engine rocked into the Cleveland yards over the switch points the motion threw the engine driver from his seat to the floor of the cab. Then the fireman learned what had happened. He jumped to the engineer's seat, leaving his companion helpless on the foot boards, while he brought the speed of the train down within the yard limits.

Webber's condition was found to be critical. How long he had been unconscious at the throttle is not known.

Since his arrival for a visit with friends in Fort Wayne, Dr. C. B. Stemen, for many years a prominent physician and surgeon here, has been officially advised of his election as professor of surgery in the medical department of the University of Kansas, located at Kansas City, Kan.

Dr. Stemen, who removed to Kansas City two years ago, was for many years dean of the old Fort Wayne College of Medicine. He has accepted the place on the faculty of the Kansas university.

TRAIN CLIMBER GETS A FINE FOR CHICAGO OFFENSE

Jumps Train in Illinois and is Assessed in Court Here.

Testimony against Joseph Taylor in the city court this morning indicated that he was taken from the head end of a Pennsylvania passenger train here upon his arrival Monday night. His own evidence was to the effect that he boarded the train in Chicago and there was nothing to show whether it was moving or not but he was fined $1 and costs and must serve eleven days for an offense that was not committed in Allen county.

A leading member of the bar said that under the statutes he should have been fined at the point at which he climbed upon a moving train and that if it was outside of the state the prisoner had not committed any offense against the Indiana statutes. Judge Skelton has heretofore let train climbers go where it could not be shown they had climbed on trains within his jurisdiction.

Flourished a Gun.

George Berrick flourished a gun on Chicago street Monday night and wanted to shoot somebody. He said the weapon was borrowed but the judge fined him $1 and costs and ordered the gun destroyed by the sheriff.

The Other Cases.

Lucille Marh, an inmate of a resort, was fined $5 and costs and her cash bond covered the penalty.

The cases against William Hilker and Joseph Oswald, who had a difficulty during the Bass strike, were dismissed upon motion of Deputy Prosecutor Harry Ninde, who said if there are any other proceedings they will be filed in the circuit court. "Tony" Walker, of the molders' executive committee, objected and was referred to his attorney.

The cases against a number of negroes arrested in George Hamilton's Chicago street crap game several weeks ago, were continued until September 17. Harry Hart, wanted as a witness, was in court and on his promise to be present at the trial he was allowed to go.

It is estimated that last year Paris ate altogether 40,000 horses, or more than 22,000,000 pounds of horseflesh. In 1899 the consumption was less than 10,000,000 pounds. Besides the low price, there has been a demand for the meat, because it is supposed to be wholesome in cases of tuberculosis and tuberculosis tendency. Many people regard it more healthful than beef.

New York city has provided new flat houses for 586,000 tenants during the last five years.

COUNCIL APPROVES ALL CONTRACTS MADE BY THE BOARD

Councilman Henry Fights to the Last Ditch But is Beaten.

Under a hot fire from Councilman J. M. Henry, who fought hard to the last ditch, the contracts made by the board of public works with the McBride Electrical company, of St. Paul, and that made with the P-K Engineering company, of St. Louis, were approved by the city council at a special meeting held Tuesday night. There was no opposition to the contracts with the Fort Wayne Electric works, The Alphonse Custodis Chimney Construction company and the Moellering Construction company and they passed without dissent.

Except that Capt. Harrison voted with the democrats the measures were passed under a strict party vote which was as follows on each of the ordinances carrying the measures:

Ayes—Bayer, Boerger, Harrison, Kinder, Langard, Rodenbeck, Schwier, Welch, Wyss.

Nays—Cook, Henry, Johnson, Stemen.

There was not a hitch until the P-K boiler contract was submitted. Mr. Henry said in his opinion the boiler is not a water tube, but is a mongrel affair, rated too high by the builders, with no guarantee, and he then produced a telegram from a firm at Oswego, Mich., which stated that the Bronson boiler, made by the P-K concern, is not entirely satisfactory to manufacturers in whose plant a battery has been installed. He said he had given the matter considerable thought and believed the councilmen would make a mistake by approving the deal and suggested that the bid ought to be thrown out.

Mr. Cook said he was fighting an old schoolmate in the person of Nathan Cohn, representative of the boiler, but he had been informed the boiler is not durable, will not last and will not develop the horse-power. Mr. Johnson said he had heard that the manufacturers are not responsible and he doubted their ability to deliver the boilers if the contract is awarded. Mr. Bayer said he didn't know anything about boilers, but he relied upon Engineer Ford and was willing to stick by his judgment. Mr. Kinder said practically the same thing and then a vote was taken.

Next the McBride bid came up. Mr. Henry said he could not too severely condemn the board of public works and the engineer for entering into such a contract and that in his opinion the bid should be thrown out and new advertisements inserted in the papers. He said that if the council passed the ordinance of approval it would be giving away $4,500 of the people's money because that is the difference between No. 6 and No. 8 wire. Mr. Cook took a swing at the contract and suggested that there was too good an understanding between the engineer and the company.

Mr. Bayer pointed out that the bid from any point of view was better by $3,500 than anything else offered and asked Mr. Henry if that was not the truth. The latter replied by saying that he had not brought up that point. Mr. Kinder, Capt. Harrison, Mr. Rodenbeck and others were heard on the matter, the vote followed and there was a speedy adjournment. No debate was allowed on the part of the bidders.

Miss Katherine Archer gave a beautiful card party this afternoon at which she entertained a company of young girls. The rooms were decorated with wild flowers in an artistic manner. Wild roses in the dining room, black-eyes Susans and yellow flags on the porch and field daisies and sweetpeas in the other rooms produced a pretty effect. Progressive hearts was the game of the afternoon. Miss Helen Miller, of Chicago, and Miss Charlotte Edgerton, of Indianapolis, were out of town guests. Other guests were Virginia Bash, Marjorie Guternuth, Mabel Smith, Misses Edna Beaver, Muriel Baxter, Helen Bassett, Edith Harding, Esther Anger, Clara Thieme, Henrietta Loeffler, Irma Poole, Lois Puddy, Flora Cook, Ruth Caldwell, Irma Henderson, Mamie Jacobs, Myrtle Carter, Mabel and Venette Sites, Marie Scroggy, Anna Heyman, Bertha VanGorder, Helen Magee, Helen Travis, Gwenn Saylor, Hazel Pfeiffer, Florence and Stella Klinkenberg.

What Mr. and Mrs. Guldlin had planned to be a garden party at their home last evening became an informal and delightful reception to which not only personal friends of Mr. and Mrs. Guldlin were invited, but friends of Mrs. Guldlin's brother, John Bleekman, of New York city, who formerly lived here. Mr. Bleekman is accompanied by his wife and they received with Mr. and Mrs. Guldlin, Miss Clara Guldlin and Will Coffinbury, of Garrett, an old friend of Mr. Bleekman. The house was profusely decorated with flowers and the porches and lawn lighted with Japanese lanterns. Vases of feverfew, poppies, snapdragon, nasturtiums, sweetpeas and field daisies were placed in the various rooms and lights shaded to correspond in effect with the colors of the flowers used. Mrs. George Naylor presided at the salad in the dining room and Mrs. D. N. Foster served ices in the breakfast room. Mrs. Frank Rahe dispensed punch with the aid of a number of young girls. Assisting ladies were Mrs. T. E. Ellison, Mrs. C. A. Wilding, Mrs. Frank Cutshall, Mrs. Minnie Graves Brown, Mrs. W. P. Cooper, Mrs. George Beers, Mrs. Theodore Thieme. Miss Mabel Moderwell, of Fairmont, W. Va., who was expected to be one of the guests, was prevented from coming at the last moment. Miss McCracken used pink sweet peas in the livingroom for decorative purposes and in the diningroom where cool refreshments were served the yellow coriopsis afforded all the color necessary. At the table in the diningroom were Miss McPhail and Mrs. A. Randall. Miss Jane Harper and Hilda Lane assisted in serving refreshments. Mrs. Frank Bond, Mrs. Harvey Crane and Miss Bertha Freeman assisted in the living room. Receiving with Miss McCracken and the Misses Moderwell was Miss Sikes, of Minneapolis, who is in charge of the children's department in the public library.

Fifteenth Wedding Anniversary.

The Ladies' society of Emanuel Lutheran church, assisted by their husbands, gave the pastor of the church, Rev. William Moll and his wife, a pleasant surprise Tuesday evening in the hall of the school building. The occasion was the fifteenth wedding anniversary of Rev. and Mrs. Moll, which occurred several days ago but which circumstances at the time made unfavorable for a celebration. The society made Mr. and Mrs. Moll a gift of a set of china and several pieces of cut glass. A musical program was rendered by musicians of the church, among them were both Mr. and Mrs. Moll, who sang. Mrs. Moll's sister, Miss Emelia Keyl, who is visiting here, played accompaniments. Refreshments were served.

LEAPS TO HIS DEATH.

Young Man Inscribes Last Message on a Stone Near Scene of Tragedy.

Bedford, Ind., July 17.—Jumping in front of a swiftly approaching passenger train was the certain method Hester Herold, 21 years old, took to end his life yesterday afternoon. Before making his fatal leap he inscribed on a stone near where the tragedy was enacted the following message: "Hester Herold, gone home to rest. My father is Joe Herold, of Kurtz."

As the fast eastbound passenger train on the Southern Indiana was approaching the outskirts of the city the engineer noticed a man on the track; seeing that the man did not heed the approach of the train the engineer slowed up and the man stepped to one side. The engineer then came on under a full head of steam, when to his horror the man deliberately jumped back on the track in front of the engine. The emergency brakes were applied and the train brought to a stop, but not until it had passed over the body. The wheels crushed his head and badly mangled his body. Nothing is known of the young man or the cause of his wilful death.

IMMIGRATION RECORD BROKEN.

Arrivals During Fiscal Year Just Ended Number 1,285,349.

Washington, July 17.—All immigration records in the history of the country were broken by the aggregate returns for the fiscal year of 1907, which ended on June 30 last. The total number of alien immigrants landed in America during the year was 1,285,349, as against 1,100,735 landed during the fiscal year of 1906. The great majority of the immigrants reached this country during the last six months, the exact number for that period being 743,952. Of the total arrivals during the last six months 132,185 came from Russia.

CASTRO MAY REPUDIATE DEBTS.

Venezuela Intimates to Belgium That It Will Not Settle.

Brussels, July 17.—Venezuela has intimated that it will refuse to pay the $2,000,000 debt to its Belgian creditors. This decision is contrary to the finding of The Hague tribunal, and the Belgian government, realizing that persistence in this refusal would inflict the most serious injury to the cause of arbitration, is doing its utmost to induce Venezuela to carry out The Hague verdict.

MADMAN SHOT TO DEATH AFTER HE MAIMED SIX MEN

Bloody Battle and Thrilling Chase Takes Place Near Hammond.

Chicago, July 17.—After a desperate battle in which two men were probably fatally shot and four others wounded, a heat-crazed maniac who had been terrorizing the countryside about Hammond, Ind., was killed in a swamp six miles east of that point, where he had taken up his last stand.

The man had been scouring the fields in the vicinity of the Michigan Central tracks since Friday. He was armed with a double-barreled shotgun, and when chase was given he had been able to elude his pursuers in the swamps.

His victims include:

Frank Chambers, Hammond, Ind., shot in abdomen; will die.

Frank Martin, Hammond, shot in breast; will die.

Henry Anderson, shot in shoulder.

William McKay, shot in leg.

Joseph Martin, chief of police, Hammond, shot in forehead.

Edward Jenkins, police officer, shot in arm.

The maniac is supposed to have been Julius Polinski, a young Pole, who came to West Hammond from Minnesota recently. He left his boarding house at 21 Congress street on Friday, acting in a peculiar manner, and telling his landlady that some men were plotting to kill him. He carried a double-barreled shotgun with him.

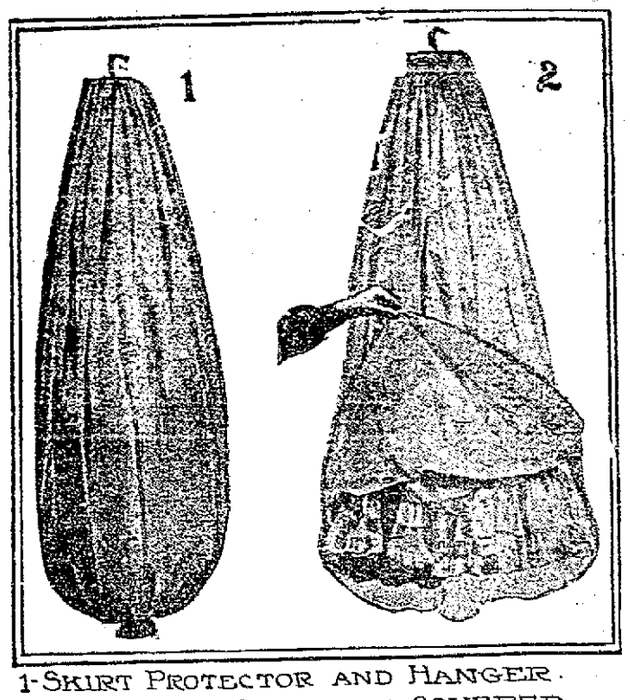
Yesterday William McKay encountered the man at a point near Pine Station, walking in the Michigan Central tracks. He was jabbering unintelligibly to himself, and when he saw McKay approach he leveled the gun at him. McKay turned to flee and received the charge from both barrels of the shotgun.

A posse was organized and gave chase. He had been seen loitering in the swamps and the posse separated. While walking ahead of the party Chambers spied the man and ordered him to throw up his hands. The maniac's only answer was to discharge his gun and run. The rest of the posse closed in and a running fight ensued, in which four other men were wounded.

Later in the day a posse of seventy-five men was organized and took up the trail. Polinski was chased into the swamps, and after a desperate battle was shot by Policeman George Hamlon, of Hammond. The body was removed to the morgue at Gary, Ind.

Charley Rossington, well known in hotel circles in Northern Indiana, has gone to Peoria, Ill., to take a position as chief clerk for Landlord Dick Townsend, at the National. Mr. Rossington was formerly connected with the Randall hotel in this city.

New Style Traveling Closet



1-SKIRT PROTECTOR AND HANGER.
2-GARMENT IS COMPLETELY COVERED.

A skirt protector and hanger that may be carried away with one to country and mountain resorts, where closet room is often small or entirely lacking, is a convenience that the average woman will be glad to possess, especially when she knows that it is inexpensive, and may even be made at home if she has enough ingenuity.

This new portable closet is made of a round piece of white wood that is from a quarter to an inch in thickness, and may be from four to ten inches in diameter, according as it is to be used for the support and protection of one or more skirts.

To one side of the wood small brass hooks are securely attached, for on these the skirts, waists, etc., are to be hung, and on the other side one large hook is screwed into the center, for it is used to fasten on closet nails or hung to knobs or other convenient places.

Around the outer edge of the board yards of gingham, muslin or any material desired are tacked in large pleats, so that there will be enough to completely cover all the articles hung within. The bottom of this baglike curtain is finished with a draw string, so when in use it may be pulled tight to keep out dust. If desired, sachet bags may be tacked to the bottom of this protector or bag and in this way the clothes will be delicately scented.

Women Will Do Practical Sewing at Summer Homes

By Elizabeth Lee.

Novelties for piazza work during vacations are just now the center of interest in the art departments of the large stores, where almost every second woman stops to select something light and pretty to pack away in her trunk for use at idle moments.

Linen and kindred fabrics naturally form the foundation for this kind of needlework, as it is obvious that expensive materials, especially in delicate colors, are not quite the proper thing for warm weather sewing, and anything that can be washed is so much nicer.

Sets of table linen stamped for embroidering are selling well this season, and these come in two different models, each displaying quite a variety of designs. Both are new, and the more simple is the linen scalloped and buttonholed on the edge, with a row of hemstitching, looking like veining a couple of inches away from the border. Inside the border the pattern is stamped. Eyelet and solid embroidery are both represented, the designs either in floral or conventional effect.

Second in favor to the linens is the Holbein embroidery, which is really just cross-stitch, so simple that a child could manage it. This comes stamped on a loosely woven linen, not the thick, heavy kind that was formerly used for this decoration, and shows conventional patterns that may be carried out in colors.

Doilies and other table nappery always pay for the time spent on good material. For personal adornment there are bow ties, collar and cuff sets, needle cases intended for stick pins, shirt waists and lingerie garments in lawn or linen, parasols and hats. A piece of work that does not take up much room and will bear crushing in a sewing bag is convenient for work out of doors.

CITY BREVITIES.

J. F. W. Horstman returned this morning from the Chicago horse market, where he purchased a handsome team of silver gray horses, to be used on the new silver gray funeral car recently purchased by Klaehn & Melching.

Robert Meyer, who some years ago was connected with the Thieme Brothers tailoring establishment, but who has been running a shop of his own at Kokomo since, has returned to this city and will take up his old position with Thieme Bros.

A meeting of the St. Paul's Lutheran congregation will be held this evening at the church to extend a call to a teacher to take the place of Prof. Strieder, who handed in his resignation to the board some time ago to take effect at the close of the school year.

A Beautiful Face

The Secret of Parisian Women's Beautiful Complexions.

To the minds of most women, Parisian means beauty—so world-famous are the ladies of Paris for making themselves charming and beautiful. And yet it is a fact that Parisiennes, so far as features are concerned, haven't beautiful faces, as a rule. Their beauty consists largely of immaculate complexions. An American lady, visiting a friend in Paris, obtained from her the secret of the clear, charming complexions of Frenchwomen and says that it is a wash that is prepared at home and applied to the face daily.

Obtain at your drug store Rose Water, 2 ounces; Cologne Spirits 1 ounce; Eppotone (skin food) four ounces. Put the Eppotone in a pint of hot water (not boiling), and after dissolved, strain and let cool. Then add the Rose Water and Cologne Spirits.

The above wash is easily and quickly prepared at home, and is a most delightful toilet preparation, harmless even to a baby's face, and soothing to tender skins. Its application daily will work wonders with even the plainest complexions, transforming the sallow and unsightly into the fresh, delicate bloom of youth. The cost of the ingredients is very small and the quantity is sufficient to last for months. It is as much an essential to the well-appointed toilet table as the powder box— in fact it takes the place of powder and rouge; a complexion treated with this lotion needs nothing else to perfect its charm.

Sentinel's Free Cook Book

BOILED CABBAGE.

Cut a small head of cabbage into quarters, cutting through the stalk. Put head down in a large pan of salt water, to draw out any insects that may be hidden between the leaves. Take out, drain and cut into large slices, removing the stalk. Put into a large saucepan of boiling water, add a tablespoonful salt and cook with cover partially off for half or three-quarters of an hour, dependant upon the size of the cabbage. Take out and drain through a colander, pressing to remove as much of the water as possible. Put into a chopping bowl and chop, season with salt, pepper and butter, and serve hot. Cabbage is also used when boiled in the water in which corned beef has been previously cooked, or with salt pork or bacon. In this case the meat is cooked first, the cabbage being added three-quarters of an hour or so before time for serving.

Successful Brains

How to make Brains and keep them IN REPAIR

Any man or woman, with little trouble and less expense, can make an interesting experiment on Brains.

We all naturally desire to be considered "brainy"—"intellectual."

The Brain and nerves are fed or hurt by the food put into the stomach. If that food contains the right elements and digestion and assimilation are perfect, the Brain will act in the sanest, clearest manner.

If improper, indigestible food is taken, eaten with nervous haste and in excessive quantities, the digestive organs cannot convert it entirely into real sustenance and it lies in the stomach too long and decays.

"Decay" means that bacteria begins to work and these living organisms produce toxic or poisonous matter which is quickly absorbed with what little food has been digested, and carried into the blood.

This poisoned blood goes to the Brain as well as elsewhere, and the Brain with all its connecting nerves, being the most sensitive tissues of the body—the seat of thought and execution of the same—is acted upon the same as when alcohol or any other poison is taken, only in different degree.

Dull, sluggish, half asleep, unable to think clearly and promptly—anything but "Brainy"—is the person so fed. In fact it is not feeding but poisoning, and a Brain so treated cannot be successful.

A genuine food for the Brain is Grape-Nuts. "Why," someone asks. Analysis of Grape-Nuts will show Phosphate of Potash as found in wheat and barley of which the food is made.

This Phosphate combines with Albumen and water in the human body and builds the soft gray filling of the nerves and brain cells; then again the food is easy of digestion because it is cooked at the factories in such manner as to transform the starch of the wheat and barley into a form of sugar, to be seen under a strong glass on each granule of Grape-Nuts.

This sugar was not "put on" or poured over, but exudes during the process of cooking and is really the starch turned to sugar and ready to be absorbed into the blood.

So with Grape-Nuts we have the food with the right things Nature demands for Brain-building and we also have a food easy of digestion.

Make the trial, it's worth while. It's a profound demonstrable truth.

CORTELYOU BOOM SHOWS VIGOR.

Politicians See Motive to Kill Off Hughes for President.

Washington, July 17.—Some of the politicians who did not regard the Cortelyou presidential boom as a very serious affair at first now think there may be a deep motive behind it. If the candidacy of the secretary of the treasury has the effect of killing off the candidacy of Governor Hughes of New York the motive as these observers now see it will become generally apparent.

There seems to be a division among certain business interests with respect to Hughes. One element, it is believed, would like to push the governor of the Empire state for the republican presidential nomination because he is preferred by it to a man bearing the formal stamp of the present national administration. Another element wants to curb a prospective Hughes movement, and it is this element that is now singing the praises of Cortelyou and declaring that the wires are being laid to give him the New York delegation.

Secretary Cortelyou himself, as previously stated, is believed to have the presidential bee in his bonnet and possibly thinks he may stand a show as a "partially administration and partially conservative" candidate if anything happens to sidetrack the Taft movement and the president sticks to his determination not to run again. Some time ago the administration was understood to be willing to take either Taft or Root, whichever was the most available. It has been demonstrated that Secretary Root will not be available, and relying on the assurance that the administration is not seeking to dictate so far as the individual candidate is concerned, Secretary Cortelyou sees visions, according to some who have studied his case, of being another alternative.

CLARENCE ENGLISH IS HERE FOR BATTLE WITH GARDINER

Omaha Boy Arrives and He Looks Good as His Reputation.

Clarence English, the Omaha welter class fighter who is to meet Jimmy Gardner in a ten-round go at the Summit City club's opening performance at Princess rink next Friday night, arrived in the city today. English has the look of a warrior of whom good things can be expected. He is the possessor of a well earned reputation for clean, fast work in which science and hard-hitting play an equal part. He is probably about the best man the Lowell fighter has stacked up against for a good while. English is not boasting, but he expresses a quiet confidence of being able to take ample care of himself in the ring with the peerless Jimmy. The Omaha boy is in good condition, but will get to work and put on the finishing touches between now and Friday.

Gardiner has changed his training quarters from the rink to the gymnasium of the Maumee Athletic club in the Shengerbund building, where he can have every facility for his work. The change was made possible through the courtesy of Director Harper, of the Maumee club. The public can have access to the Maumee club gymnasium each afternoon from 3 to 4 o'clock, at which time Gardiner and his sparring partner, "Kid" Goodman, do a training stunt that is a lot better than much of the work that passes in the ring for the real thing.

The Summit club has installed a complete new outfit of ring paraphernalia for the opening show Friday night. Every appointment that can add to the success of the show has been added and when the gong rings for the opening battle nothing will be missing.

Emil Thiery, Gardiner's manager and one of the most experienced ring men in the country, says English will give Gardiner about as fast a chase as the man from Spindletown has ever had. Thiery refereed a recent fight between English and the Indian, Joe Gregg, one of the toughest propositions of his class in the ring today. English bested the aborigine decisively, outpointing him all the way.

The seat sale so far indicates a crowd that will fill the capacity of the rink. Outside towns have been sending in orders for large blocks of seats.

SHOW PUBLIC SPIRIT AND FAITH IN FORT WAYNE.

with a most generous sum, there are no specially large stockholders. The desire has been to have as many small stockholders as possible for the added strength this will give to the organization. No person has been favored above another, and the citizen subscribing $100 has been as welcome as one subscribing $5,000.

The committees have not been able to see everybody. Some who would desire to subscribe are out of town. But that all may have an opportunity to show their public spirit and their interest in Fort Wayne, the board of directors wishes to hereby invite every citizen not yet on the list to come forward, without solicitation, and help to make up the few thousand dollars yet required. They do not propose to let anyone assert in the future that they were given no opportunity to get any of the stock. The subscription books to the general public will be closed on July 25. Subscriptions may be mad through any member of the board.

TEMPERANCE REVIVAL

J. Buck Stanley's Last Meeting Will Be Held Tomorrow Evening.

The last meeting of the tent series of talks which J. Buck Stanley has been giving at the corner of Fairfield and Creighton avenues will be held tomorrow evening and in order to avoid any chances of having a downpour of rain such as there has been for the past two or three nights, the meeting will be held at the Third Presbyterian church, where all are invited to come and hear him. His topic is one with which many are familiar and is "The Story of the Capture of Bill and Amer Greene." These two men were caught by Mr. Stanley in the depths of Texas, 220 miles from any railroad. The case had been put in the hands of Pinkerton detectives by the authorities of Cass county, where the men committed their crimes, but these people failed to land them. Mr. Stanley turned the trick and makes a very interesting talk about it.

The meeting this evening will be in the shape of an illustrated lecture and the topic will be "The Saloon Trees of Fort Wayne and the Fruit They Bear."

MOSQUITOES HOLD UP TRAIN.

Millions of Pest Swarm Into Coaches Near Badgley, Iowa.

Des Moines, Iowa, July 17.—A swarm of mosquitoes, millions in number, literally stalled a Minneapolis and St. Louis railroad train at Badgley Monday night. For two hours the heavily loaded train was tied up by its fight with the pests and the 120 passengers were almost crazed before they escaped.

The attack was made early in the evening, just as the train started to pull out of Badgley.

Because of the hot weather the windows in the passenger coaches had been left open and the mosquitoes, driven from the marshes by the rain, swarmed into the cars, attacking the passengers. For awhile the passengers attempted to fight the pests with handkerchiefs and hands, but as they increased in number and ferocity the conductor was finally appealed to and stopped the train.

For two hours the train was stalled, while the passengers, driven from the coaches, built fires along the right of way, making a dense smudge which afforded them a little relief. The smudge was then carried into the coaches and the mosquitoes finally driven out. Many of the passengers had hands and faces almost eaten raw by the attacks.

FLEES POVERTY AS AID COMES.

Despondent Minneapolis Lawyer Disappears Before Fortune Arrives.

Minneapolis, July 17.—Depressed by financial troubles, Semer G. Wells, a prominent attorney of Minneapolis, has disappeared. Had he waited three hours longer he would have found all his troubles dissipated by the arrival of a draft for what amounts to a comfortable fortune and a settlement of all his financial difficulties. He left a note at his office saying he could stand the strain no longer, and no trace of him has been seen.

His wife refuses to believe her husband committed suicide and is doing everything in her power to find him. The police are searching for the body.

THE MARKET TODAY.

The market this morning was very quiet. The receipts of grain were very light, while poultry was not scarce. The receipts of butter and eggs were light, with the prices holding firm. The only change in prices this morning were the lowering of wheat two cents and a slight advance in oats. Wheat is now 88 cents per bushel.

WILL ADJUST DIFFERENCES

"Formers" at Knitting Mills Will Return to Work.

The strike of the "formers" at the Wayne Knitting mills in protest against the appointment of a new foreman, has been satisfactorily adjusted, it is said, and the boys will return to duty tomorrow morning. E. Palm, the new foreman, will continue to preside over the department and George Newhouse, who had been acting foreman for some time, will remain though in another capacity. There are over 100 boys on strike and had the difficulties continued for some time, it would have greatly embarrassed affairs at the works and possibly compelled other departments to suspend operations in part.

MILEAGE TICKETS STAY.

Western Roads Agree to Keep Them on Sale.

The western roads have agreed to continue the sale of interchangeable mileage books, as requested by the mercantile and other interests. Heretofore the interchangeable ticket has been sold at the rate of $50 for 2,000 miles, but a rebate of $9.50 has been paid to the original purchaser if the ticket was used exclusively by him according to the rules.

Attorneys for the various western lines were unanimous in the opinion that it would be illegal to sell the interchangeable mileage ticket at a higher than 2 cents a mile in any state where that is the maximum fare. Accordingly, the passenger officials decided that it would be necessary to reduce the price of the 2,000-mile ticket to $40.

The abolition of the refund feature makes it necessary to maintain the mileage bureau of the Western Passenger association, which has about 75 employes.

The Central Passenger association has decided to continue the sale of interchangeable mileage books at the rate of $25 for 1,000 miles and pay a refund of $5 to the purchaser if the ticket is used exclusively for interstate trips.

WILL MEET OFFICIALS.

Conductors and Brakemen Have Some Requests to Make.

Grand lodge officers of the Order of Railway Conductors and the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen met at the St. Charles hotel, in Pittsburg, yesterday afternoon with a committee representing trainmen employed on the Wheeling & Lake Erie railroad. A committee has been appointed to confer with H. W. McMasters, general superintendent, and other officials of the Wabash lines east of Toledo next week regarding some changes in the working rules. At the close of the meeting yesterday it was stated that there would be no trouble and that the differences between the railroad and the trainmen would be settled within the next ten days.

TRAIN LOAD OF PRISONERS.

Fifty Military Men Who Went Wrong Pass Through City.

About fifty military prisoners, with the necessary escort, occupied some tourist cars on the first section of Nickel Plate train No. 1, which passed through the city at noon today. The prisoners are being transferred from one of the eastern prisons to the United States prison at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas.

NEW SHOP AT ALTOONA.

The steel frame skeleton of the new lathe shop of the Pennsylvania, which will be the largest in the country, has been completed forty days ahead of the time agreed upon in the contract. The building, which will be a part of the monster shops of the Pennsylvania railroad at Altoona, is 175 feet long, 68 feet wide and 137 feet high. More than 1,300 tons of steel were used in its construction and more than 23,000 rivets were used. The brick work and construction of the roof are now under way, and it is expected to have these completed by September.

ONLY ON A VISIT.

The rumor that five of the new pipefitters at the Wabash shops had quit the service seems to have been unfounded. The men have relatives in Chicago and they simply took a leave of absence to go there to look after them. They will return and resume work at the Wabash shops the latter part of the week. Each has wages due him there.

LAYING OFF MEN.

The Lake Shore company has commenced a retrenchment policy which is causing considerable anxiety at Elkhart and elsewhere where big shops are located. Seventy men were laid off at Elkhart Saturday and the Elkhart Truth says that fully 1,000 men are to be dropped from the pay rolls at the five big shops on the system.

OFF ON VACATIONS.

The employes of the Fort Wayne Electric works who are enjoying a vacation this week are Darwin S. Myer, production clerk; J. C. Kampe and John Venz, of the auditing department. L. S. Nold, the head of the auditing department, is expected to return from his vacation tomorrow or the following day.

SHOPMAN PAINFULLY HURT.

Ross Germain, of the Pennsylvania machine shop, had the second and fourth fingers of his right hand cut this morning. The digits were caught in the drill press the young man was operating. Neither digit will have to be amputated.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

Henry Schmidt is a new blacksmith's helper at the Bass shops.

J. S. Sanford is a new man in the signal department of the Pennsylvania.

Peter Lepper and W. F. Kolthoff, Pennsylvania shopmen, are sick and off duty.

W. Y. Cherry went to Chicago this morning on business for the Pennsylvania company.

F. W. Schultz, who was hurt a week ago, resumed work at the Wabash shops this morning.

Pennsylvania Firemen W. F. Biedenweg and G. R. Childs are off duty on account of sickness.

Edward Ely and Archie Sheehan have resigned positions at the Indiana Road Machine works.

The material for a house for Contractor H. J. Hanna was delivered on DeGroff street this morning.

Guy Lee, of the Indiana Road Machine works, has a broken thumb and will be unable to work for awhile.

New names on the pay rolls at the Wabash shops today are William Weibel, F. J. Cukras and Fred Vollmer.

Yesterday the Indiana Road Machine company sent a car load of their machines to Hamilton, Ontario.

Harry Wimmer, a coremaker, formerly employed at the Bass works, has taken a position at the Western Gas works.

Eugene E. Williams, clerk for Division Storekeeper C. P. Cherry, of the Pennsylvania, will be twenty-one years old tomorrow.

F. Bloembke and William Doelling took positions in the meter department at the Fort Wayne Electric works this morning.

F. A. Thompson, a machinist who had a hand hurt a week or two ago at the Pennsylvania round house, resumed work this morning.

E. W. Selbert resumed his duties at the Pennsylvania machine shop this morning, after an absence on account of sickness a few days.

Engineer J. H. Bridges, of the Wabash, has been in the company's hospital at Peru for the past two weeks with symptoms of typhoid fever.

H. E. Vodde and F. A. Yehl, pipefitters, went to Alliance, Ohio, last night to do some work in the new oil house of the Pennsylvania company.

Jacob Waldschmidt is absent from his machine in the Pittsburg planing mills today. He is moving his family and household goods into new quarters.

Charles Houppert has returned from a two weeks visit with relatives in DeKalb, Ill., and this morning he resumed his duties in the Pennsylvania tank shop.

Miss Jacobs has returned and Miss Hockemeyer has entered upon a vacation. Both ladies are stenographers at the office of the Indiana Road Machine company.

S. Giorgakopalor, the Italian who lost a finger while at work at the Wabash shops a short time ago, has returned from the Peru hospital and will soon resume work.

The Carpenters' union is moving into its new home in the MacDougal block. The old quarters were too small for the increased lodge, which now has over two hundred members.

T. P. Robertson, a lineman at the Pennsylvania power plant, is sick and off duty. N. H. Byall, fireman at the same plant, has recovered from an illness which kept him from work a week.

Fred, the seven-year-old son of Machinist Fred Ropa, of the Wabash shops, is recovering from an illness which has confined him to his bed for some time. The lad had symptoms of typhoid fever.

A. G. Robinson, general passenger agent of the Chicago and Alton road, spent the night in the city and called upon the local ticket agents. Years ago Mr. Robinson was a frequent visitor at Fort Wayne.

Henry Lageman, assistant division storekeeper of the Pennsylvania, and his family will leave the latter part of the week for visits in Chicago and Milwaukee. Mr. Lageman will then take his summer vacation.

F. R. Fitzpatrick, a special apprentice in the electrical department of the Pennsylvania, has returned from Sandusky, Ohio, where he was engaged about three months in doing some work for the company.

Pittsburg Post: "Traffic officials believe that another new record in the handling of freight will be made this month. It is expected that the reports will show the business in July to be as heavy as that of last month, which was a record-breaker."

Tomorrow H. F. Schultz, a fluemaker at the Pennsylvania shops, will go to Chicago to spend a week or ten days with friends. L. W. Irelan, also of the flue shop, has gone to Indianapolis with the battery boys.

Machinist C. E. Paul, of the Wabash, was taken violently ill at the shops yesterday as the result of the heat and taking copious draughts of ice cold water. He was sent to his home in a hack and will probably be unable to report for work for several days.

Passenger men of the roads that usually participate in Niagara Falls excursion business are out hustling for their respective lines. The Pennsylvania, the Nickel Plate, the Wabash and the Lake Erie and Western will have excursions to the Falls in August.

As a result of the two-cent fare law in Illinois, the Alton will run no more week-end excursions to Chicago. It is said that the Alton made $500,000 out of this class of business last year. Other roads, it is said, will take similar action and give the two-cent law a fair trial.

E. N. Odenbaugh, of the passenger department of the Pennsylvania, spent a short time with his depot friends in this city yesterday. He was en route to Chicago with a party of western tourists. Mr. Odenbaugh resided in Fort Wayne a year or two and he and his estimable wife have many warm friends here.

Will Rossington reached Charlotte, N. C., Saturday night and writes that from the brief time he had to investigate, he is inclined to the opinion that he is going to like the position and the town first rate. It will be remembered that Mr. Rossington went to Charlotte to take the position of meter expert at a big lighting plant.

The Wayne Knitting company has purchased the plant and good will of the Cornell Stocking corporation, of Bedford, Mass., and will bring the machinery, stock and working force here and add it to the already extensive plant. The seamless end of the business will be taken to the Roanoke plant and the other portions will remain here.

The Baldwin Locomotive works, of Philadelphia, has taken up the work of construction upon thirty Ferry type freight locomotives for the Wabash and delivery upon the order will soon commence. It is said that these engines will be assigned to the Detroit division. J. B. Barnes, the motive power superintendent, has been in Philadelphia on business connected with this contract.

The Euclid quartet, a musical organization of much merit, has been engaged to sing at the lawn social to be given by the fire department of the Fort Wayne Electric works on the lawn of the Leaser property on Wall street next Tuesday evening. There will also be a number of good features for the entertainment of those who favor the fire laddies with their patronage and the social in many ways will eclipse anything ever gotten up in Fort Wayne.

TERRE HAUTE'S BIG GROWTH DUE TO MISTAKES

Newspaper Quotes School Official in Explanation of Padding.

(Terre Haute Star.)

County Superintendent of Schools John S. Hubbard received official notice yesterday from State Superintendent of Public Instruction Fassett A. Cotton, ordering the retaking of Terre Haute's school enumeration. Mr. Hubbard said that the work would be started at once.

The alleged mistake or "padding" by which Terre Haute's school census showed an enormous increase over the census taken two years ago will be investigated carefully by the new census takers, who have not yet been chosen by the county superintendent. It is likely that F. D. Hester, Cotton's deputy, will supervise the second enumeration in person. Mr. Cotton's letter follows:

Superintendent J. S. Hubbard, Terre Haute, Ind.

Dear Mr. Hubbard—After a very careful examination of the books used in taking the school census of the city of Terre Haute, April 10 to April 30, 1907, I find that the reported enumeration would seem to be greatly in excess of the actual number of children of school age in that city.

By comparing books numbered 4, 5 and 6, it was found in many cases that the same families and the same street numbers were given in two of the books, and in some instances the same families were included in the three different books. In all such cases the same children were enumerated two or three times.

The names of children who do not exist were included; some were listed as 6 years of age, who were not that old, some being only 3 years of age; many families were credited with having more children than they actually had. One family was reported as having fifteen and another as having twenty-four children, the latter having seven who were reported as being 17 years of age, eleven reported as being 18 years of age, and four reported as being 19 years of age. Upon investigation it was found in some instances that there were no such persons, and in other cases that state normal school students and persons not entitled to be listed were reported. In some cases where normal school students were listed the given name only was used thus showing them as members of the families with whom they roomed. Upon careful inquiry it was learned that the enumeration listed such students as being of the family and bearing the family name of the person with whom they roomed; and that this was often done over the protest of the head of the household.

In some instances persons were enumerated at certain street numbers when investigation proved that no such numbers exist.

Another peculiarity of the enumeration was the fact that in many successive cases children in the same family were enumerated as being 6, 8, 10, 12, etc., years of age; or 7, 9, 11, 13, etc., years of age, showing such an unusual regularity that a careful investigation was made to see if this were true. In many cases the reports were found to be utterly false.

Some children were enumerated in factory lists who were also enumerated at home, and some of those were enumerated the third time.

The greatest wholesale false enumeration was the duplication of one entire book containing 748 names. By examining books numbered 1 and 7 we found them to be exact duplicates and many names contained in these were found in other books.

Basing my action upon the above facts and upon other evidences of an excessive school census, I therefore, ask you to cause the enumeration of Terre Haute to be retaken and returned in strict compliance with the law.

The accompanying directions should guide your enumerators in their work.

This is a matter in which I have no interest whatsoever, save that of getting an accurate enumeration. It is my desire that Terre Haute shall be accredited with every person between the ages of 6 and 21 to whom she is legally entitled. The question is one affecting the very foundation upon which the apportionment of school revenues is made to townships, cities and counties. The enumeration must, therefore, be faithfully and accurately made.

Yours very truly, F. A. Cotton.

Thinks It Was Carelessness.

Mr. Hubbard said that some of the alleged mistakes could be easily accounted for. He said he would hesitate to say any "padding" had been done intentionally, since this would amount to virtual graft on the part of the school authorities, but he is more than willing to believe the alleged duplication of names was the result of carelessness.

It is understood that a young girl was employed to copy the names of school children from the "field books" used by the enumerators to the legal forms issued by the state board of instruction. The forms were forwarded to Indianapolis immediately after completion and Mr. Hubbard argues that the child could have made a mistake easily while making the copies.

This is the only excuse offered to the county superintendent for the alleged fact that books one and seven were duplicated. The copy writer may have copied the first book and then by mistake, taken up book seven and recopied book one, without noticing the mistake, especially when the last book may have been copied several days after the first.

Another Explanation.

The startling fact that one family was credited with some 20 children of school age also is explained by Mr. Hubbard as the result of carelessness on the part of enumerators. On the legal forms space is left for the names of parents. Opposite this is space for the name of a child. In many cases, Mr. Hubbard says, the enumerators may have taken the name of the head of a household, then the first names of children.

The careless part of such a transaction would be shown at boarding houses where perhaps four or five children in the family may have been attending school and 12 or 14 boarders, whose names would legally have been entered in the enumeration as of school age. The first name only of the boarders may have been given, thus leading to the belief that they were all members of the same family. However, this would have been almost criminal carelessness. It is thought, and probably will not be given much consideration by the state authorities.

LIFE TERM FOR WOMAN DUE TO MISTAKE OF CLERK

Twenty Months' Sentence Made Twenty Years—Victim Dead.

Montgomery, Ala., July 17.—Because a careless clerk made an error, Rhena Rivers served a life sentence in the state penitentiary when she should have been kept there twenty months. For the theft of a trifling amount of money she was sent to prison when a young girl. Years of drudgery in the prison, followed by hard labor in the mines, broke her health. A short time before she would have been set free she died. With liberty at last near, the woman became ill of typhoid fever. Weakened by confinement and the strain of years of severe labor, she was unable to conquer the disease.

The facts became known yesterday when the legislature was asked to appropriate money to pay for the work the woman did in the penitentiary and mines, that her child may not be penniless. Rhena Rivers was a negress, but the governor, lawyers and legislators have interested themselves in her case and are determined that what recompense it now is possible to make shall be provided. It is believed the appropriation bill will go through without one vote in opposition to it, as the sympathies of the lawmakers have been aroused by the pitiful story of the prisoner.

Sentenced to 20 Months.

The girl was convicted of larceny in Houston county and the court pronounced sentence of twenty months in the penitentiary. The clerk of the court in making out the record changed it from twenty months to twenty years. The prisoner had no friends to take up her case when her term expired. Her mother believed she had been detained for misconduct in prison, while the fact was that she was made a trusty for good conduct. No one else attempted to find out why she was kept in prison and the years went by with the wrong unrighted.

The Rivers girl died only a few weeks ago. By reason of good conduct her term was reduced from twenty to twelve years, and she was looking forward to the time when she could be free with her child, which was born while she was in prison, when death came. Year after year she performed the hardest work without complaint, hoping to gain freedom as soon as possible, for the sake of the child. Even when she was sent to the mines, when she should have been free, she went cheerfully. It was only after her death, when her record was investigated, that the error was discovered and traced to the clerk who was responsible.

Ex-Judge R. H. Walker, one of the most prominent attorneys in the state, has interested himself in the case and promises to push it through the legislature. The governor thinks some relief should be given.

There is no remedy under the law other than to appropriate the money which the woman would have earned in the penitentiary had she not been a convict.

D. N. Foster has gone to Muncie on business.

Tomato and Cheese Salad.
Graham Bread and Butter.
Fruit Cookies. Tea.

—Dinner.—
Ripe Olive Salad on Lettuce.
Planked Steak. Potato Balls in Cream
Green Peas. Buttered.

Meat Popovers—Use for this a cup of any kind of cold meat finely chopped. Make a batter of two eggs, a cup of flour, a cup of milk, a little salt and a pinch of cayenne; beat well and stir in the meat. Bake in hot greased gem pans about fifteen minutes.

Tomato and Cheese Salad (Hint from Good Housekeeping)—A tomato salad with a sprinkling of Parmesan for a final touch has proved to be a happy thought. The cheese might well be incorporated in the dressing.

Sweet Pickled Pineapple—Select ripe but not soft fruit. Pare carefully and remove all the eyes. Cut each pineapple in half crosswise, and with a silver fork pick the fruit off from the core in small pieces. For eight pounds of fruit allow four pounds of brown sugar, one cup of mixed whole spices—stick cinnamon, cassia buds, allspice and cloves—and one quart of vinegar. Tie the spices in a cheese cloth bag, add both them and the sugar to the vinegar, and set over the fire to boil. Skim carefully and boil until clear, then add the fruit and scald until tender. Remove the fruit and seal in jars. Boil the sirup a few minutes longer and pour over the fruit while hot before sealing the jars.

Mint Punch—From one dozen sprigs of fresh mint carefully remove the bruised leaves, which give a rank flavor. In a quart jar shake one cup of crushed ice and one-half cup of sugar until the sugar is dissolved. Add the mint, pour over it one tablespoon of pure cider vinegar or lemon juice; add a cup of currant juice or one glass of currant jelly and water to make one quart. If currant jelly be used, omit the sugar wholly or in part.

TWO SYRIANS BURNED.

Shortly after 7 o'clock last evening two Syrians living in a tenement house at 524 Holman street were badly burned, one about the eyes and the other about the hands. A large colony of that race live in the house and these two men were getting the evening meal and were attempting to pour gasoline into a burning stove. The flame flared up and hit one man in the face and the other sustained his injuries while throwing the stove and oil can out into the yard.

None of the Syrians living there can speak English and their comrades left the men suffering there until some outsider called the police and they directed the men to a drug store where their injuries were dressed. The department was called to extinguish the blaze occasioned by the explosion of the gasoline and only a nominal loss was incurred.

CONCERNING THE WILD WEST

Features Which Are Promised With Buffalo Bill's Wild West and Rough Riders.

It is announced that Buffalo Bill has prepared an entirely new exhibition for his home-coming tour, after four years abroad. While, of course, the general style of the exhibition will be the same, there will be a change of scenic features, differing from any that have been seen with the show during the twenty-five years it has been before the public. Col. Wm. F. Cody, the last of the great scouts, will appear in the saddle at every performance, leading his Congress of Rough Riders in some remarkable exhibitions of expert horsemanship. The chief scenic feature will be the Battle of Summit Springs, a reproduction of one of the deciding conflicts in Indian warfare; a battle in which Col. Cody participated and in which he shot and killed Chief Tall Bull. Another pantomimic melodrama will be the Great Train Hold-Up, in which will be depicted the robbery of a train; a practical engine, cars and a realistic and true-to-life representation of one of the many scenes of lawlessness which the west has known. In A Holiday at T-E Ranch will be pictured the pleasures and pastimes of the plainsman, cowboy sports and a dance upon the green. The contrast to this scene of peaceful revelry will be shown in a sudden attack by Indians. The Rough Riders' contingent will display themselves in difficult feats of horsemanship, hazardous exhibitions of skill and a diverting and exhilarating routine of equestrian expertness and daring. In short there is no other entertainment like Buffalo Bill's Wild West and after twenty-five years before the public it is more popular than ever, and is in every way better equipped than it has ever been before.

The Wild West's Mission.

In 1883 when the Buffalo Bill Wild West lifted the curtain between the East, the Middle States and the vast Far West and revealed to the inhabited centers that chaotic conditions in the unknown land had been so far modified as to invite and justify confidence in a migratory invasion, it was hailed a valued method of publicly instructing the timorous masses.

In dissipating the then innate hatred that for generations had been existing between the misguided red man and the antipathetic white, through making both better acquainted—the one with the industrial habits and peaceful instincts engendered by commercial progress and the other with respect and pity for a foe defeated and suppliant for consideration—it accomplished in a brief time what otherwise would have taken years.

This is now all history so well known as only to need reference as a grateful tribute to its value then and its justification for continuance, if only to familiarize the young and the newcomer from over the sea of what conditions had been, in the history of the struggle for the "survival of the fittest."

It returns now after its final visit to foreign lands to eventually finish its career on its native heath, after instructing in seventeen distant countries not only the masses, but the ruling emperors, kings, queens and others, in the past realistic scenes of life in a land of world-wide interest, but which they may never visit, facilitating their book studies of the story of the great peaceful American continent. The intermission of five years will render its return visit refreshing to its old patrons and doubly interesting to the new.

Many new features are added to the imperishable historic pictures amply emphasized in advertisements and publications. Colonel Cody, the last of the great prairie scouts, still leads the aggregation of races and nations that compose it, and will daily be in the saddle.

No street parade is given this year, every effort being expended on the performance twice daily, 2 and 8 p. m., rain or shine.
